Doug,

Regards the NS&T Sed Tox data sets I mailed to you last week, Ed Long found some discrepancies in two of the data files. One was the Choctawhatchee Bay file and the other was the St. Andrews Bay data. As a result, he has supplied me with corrected replacement files that I've attached to this message. Hopefully, the attachments are readable, and the spreadsheet format was preserved. Let me know if you have problems with reading the files, I'll re send 'em to the NODC www server. I opted to send them as email attachments as they were not real big files.

Anyway, the replacement file info is as follows:

Old File	Replacement File
1) jchocta.wha	jchoctaw.xls
2) lstanr.ewb	lst_andr.xls

These files should be Mac Excel spreadsheet files.

Will wait to hear from you regards a successful transfer.....

Regards,

Sid
